Sanctioning two-third of the monthly ~~pension~~ pension of Rs 96—4—0 enjoyed by the deceased Mir Abbas Ali to be continued to his grandson Mir Julfarali in Masulipatam.

No. 54. Read the following remarks of the Board of Revenue, dated 22d September 1859, on the following tabular report of a lapsed stipendiary pension, No. 3818.

No. 4511, From Masulipatam, 6th September 1859, No. 163.

(In Con. 10th September 1859.)

In the letter accompanying this report, full particulars of the circumstances under which the pension was granted are given, and it is clear from them that although the allowance enjoyed by the deceased may not be considered as of a strictly hereditary character, yet its continuance to some extent to the surviving members of the family may be legitimately recommended to Government. The Board acknowledge the propriety of regarding the eldest grandson as the head of the family in the absence of his father; and as it is stated that the family have no means of subsistence besides this pension, they support the recommendation of the Collector that two-thirds of the amount enjoyed by the late Mir Abbas Ali, or Rupees 64 per mensem (exclusive of fractions) be continued in the name of his grandson Mir Julfakarally, for the support of the family; and that the arrears due to the late incumbent be also disbursed to him.

Proceedings of the Madras Government
Under date the 10th October 1859.

Read the following Remarks of the Board of Revenue

Submitting a Tabular Report from the Collector of Masulipatam of a proposed stipendiary pension and recommending that two thirds of the amount enjoyed by the late Meer Abbas Ally be continued in the name of his grandson Meer Dool Jafar Ally and the arrears due to the late incumbent be also disbursed to him.

Note

A similar arrangement to the one now recommended was made in the case of the late Mir Muhammad Alé, brother of the deceased Mir Abbas Alé. vide E. in C N° 1131. 17th Oct 1848 last page -

Mir Muhammad Alé, and Mir Abbas Alé were brothers and the pensions enjoyed by Bibi Begum was equally divided between them, each getting a monthly stipend of Rs 96-4 - held at the good pleasure of the Company

When Mir Muhammad Alé died in 1848, his pension of Rs 96-4 was reduced to Rs 64-2-8, which was given to his descendants -

No reason is given for the arrears but I fancy it was in consequence of the illness of the deceased

The Hon'ble the Govr in C. Concurs in the views and recommendations of the Bd of Rev: and sanctions the continuance of 2/3 or Rs 64-2-8, of the monthly pension of Rs 96-4 enjoyed by the deceased Mir Abbas Alé, to his grandson Mir Julfarali for the support of the family of the deceased -

The Govr in Council also authorizes the disbursement to Mir Julfarali, of the arrears of pension due to the deceased from Jany 1st to 16th July 1859 at the rate of Rs 96-4- per mensem.
