PROCEEDINGS of the MADRAS GOVERNMENT.

Dated 19th August 1859, No. 1110.

In Proceedings dated 8th March 1859, No. 287, the Government noticed the inefficient manner in which the North Arcot Gazette was got up, and in reply the Collector * stated that he had made arrangements for ensuring its future efficient superintendence. The Governor in Council now calls the attention of the Collector to the announcement of appointments by the Sub-Collector in the Gazette of the 12th instant. There is scarcely a stop in the whole two paragraphs, and the appointments are jumbled together so as to be almost unintelligible. Further measures appear necessary to ensure the efficient management of the Press.
