*Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department,
from 3d to 9th September 1859.*

No. 47. Read the following Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 13th August 1859, No. 3164.

Read letter from the Collector of Chingleput, dated 27th June 1859, No. 223.

(In Con. 29th June 1859, No. 3117.)

	Rs.	A.	P.
1 Gomastah, ...	21	0	0	In Extract Minutes Consultation dated 30th April 1858, R. D. No. 552, Government sanctioned the alterations, marginally noted, in the office of the Collector of Chingleput, in order to provide an establishment for the district press.
1 English writer pay reduced from Rupees 35 to 25, ...	10	0	0
1 Sumpretty do. from 17½ to 10½	7	0	0
1 Assistant Moonshee...	14	0	0
	Rupees...	52	0	0

Native Record Keeper, ...	28	0	0	2. Mr. Shubrick, instead of adhering to this arrangement, dispensed with the servants noted in the margin. Of this departure from their orders Government disapproved in Extract Minutes Consultation, dated 13th June 1859, No. 783, and directed the Collector to revert to the original arrangement, making further reductions, if necessary, and leaving in abeyance the Abkarry and Record situations, already abolished.
Do. Gomastah, ...	28	0	0
Do. Sumpretty, ...	14	0	0	In Con. 14th June 1859, No. 2781.
		87½	0	0

the Collector to revert to the original arrangement, making further reductions, if necessary, and leaving in abeyance the Abkarry and Record situations, already abolished.

3. Mr. Shubrick reports that the first part of this order was carried into effect on the 23rd June, and requests that the Civil Auditor may be authorized to adjust his establishment's bills, accordingly, from the 1st April last.

4. The enclosure No. 1 in the Collector's letter is not intelligible to the Board, but the principle laid down in the Extract Minutes Consultation, dated 13th June last, is clear, and will be sufficient guide to the Civil Auditor.

As regards the future establishment for the press, the Collector proposes to dispense entirely with the services of the English writer instead of merely reducing his pay from Rupees 35, to 25 as originally proposed, and in all other respects adhering to the scheme sanctioned in Extract Minutes Consultation, 30th April 1858. The sum available for the press will thus be raised to Rupees 77 per mensem, which will suffice for an efficient establishment.

6. The following abstract shows the proposed arrangements;—

Reductions.				Press establishment.
		Rs.	A. P.			Rs.	A. P.
1 Gomastah...	...	21	0 0	1 Compositor...	...	20	0 0
1 Assistant Moonshee...	...	14	0 0	1 Deputy do...	...	12	0 0
1 English writer...	...	35	0 0	1 Asst. do...	...	10	0 0
1 Sumpretty (pay reduced from				1 Do. do...	...	8	0 0
17½ to 10½)...	...	7	0 0	1 Pressman...	...	10	0 0
				1 Baller...	...	7	0 0
	Rupees...	77	0 0	1 Asst. do...	...	3	8 0
				Contingencies...	...	6	8 0
						Rupees...	77 0 0

7. The English writer has been 40 years in the service and is upwards of 63 years of age. The Board recommend his transfer to the pension list and the confirmation of the arrangements above proposed, the effect of which on the sanctioned Moyenzabitah is shewn in enclosure 2 of the Collector's letter.

8. In the last paragraph of his letter, the Collector requests permission to re-employ the Native Record keeper. As already explained, the order of Government, dated 30th April 1858, sanctioned the reduction of a Gomastah on Rupees 21, instead of whom the Collector reduced a Record keeper on Rupees 28 and transferred the Gomastah to the latter department. As the general revision of establishments, entrusted to Mr. Pelly, will lead to an early re-consideration of the whole subject, matters may remain as they are for the present, especially as the Collector has another Native Record keeper on Rupees 35.

Para. 5.
In Con. 12th May 1858, No. 1796.
on Rupees 21, instead of whom the Collector reduced a Record keeper on Rupees 28 and transferred the Gomastah to the latter department.
N. B.—The Collector's Tabular Statement (encl. 2) has been altered accordingly.

Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, from 3d to 9th September 1859.

9. The Board, therefore, will only request the orders of Government on paragraphs 3 and 7 of these proceedings, the former regarding the adjustment of the Collector's establishment bills, and the latter the proposed reductions and press establishment.

No. 48. ORDER THEREON, 9th September 1859, No. 1209.

In authorizing the Civil Auditor in para. 3 of their order dated 13th June 1859, No. 783, to pass the past salaries of the Chingleput press establishment as they were actually disbursed by the Collector, the Government intended that the sanction should include the charges incurred till the Collector should be put in possession of the order; the Civil Auditor will accordingly pass them up to 23rd June last.

2. Agreeably to the recommendation of the Board of Revenue, the Government now authorize the abolition of the office of English writer on 35 Rupees pay and the raising of the press establishment to 77 Rupees monthly, according to the particulars given in para. 3 of the Board's Proceedings.

3. Mr. Shubrick will submit in the usual course an application for pensioning the writer. Should the Zillah Surgeon still decline to grant a certificate, Mr. Shubrick will explain the special circumstances connected with his case, and they will be taken into consideration.

4. It is to be regretted that a letter on such a subject as Mr. Shubrick's was not disposed of in the Board's office immediately on receipt.
