I have the honor to submit a request of the Collector of Trichinopoly to be permitted to nominate an Englis Writer on twenty Rupees a month instead of a Persian and Hindoostany Moonshee, which latter situation is now vacant, and the necessity for such a servant no longer exists. The whole English Department in Trichinopoly is very weak consisting of 7 persons only as per margin, and it is with difficulty that Mr. Bird is able to cary on the work. I have informed Mr. Bird in reply to the rest of his letter that the establishments will be revised by and bye; but in the meantime I beg to recommend that permission to fill up the vacancy of the deceased Persian Moonshee, by substituting a writer in lieu of a Moonshee on the same salary, viz. 20 Rupees, may be granted.

No. 112. ORDER THEREON, 17th October 1859, No. 1410.

On the recommendation of Mr. Pelly and pending the result of his enquiry, the Honorable the Governor in Council grants permission for the appointment of an English writer in the place of and on the same salary as the Persian and Hindustance Munshi on the office establishment of the Collector of Trichinopoly.
