No. 11. Read the following letter from H. NEWILL, Esq., Director of Revenue Settlement; to J. D. BOURDILLON, Esq., Secretary to Government, Revenue Department, Fort Saint George, dated 18th October 1859, No. 895.

I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of the Proceedings of Government, dated 28th Ultimo, No. 1312, and to state that if instead of the lists of the upper servants belonging to the several Settlement and Survey Departments, being forwarded as contemplated through the Heads of the Departments, they are permitted to be sent from the Deputy Directors of Revenue Settlement, and Deputy Superintendent of Revenue Survey, at the head of each party direct to you, it will prevent delay from the Heads of these Departments being probably absent from Madras at the close of the year.

2. With regard to the 2nd clause of para. 2, I would further venture to observe that it may possibly have escaped notice, that the alterations required to be made and dispatched on the evening of 31st December will necessitate the partial opening of every office on one of the days sanctioned for the Christmas holidays, while in the event of casualties occurring on 30th or 31st December, among servants of the grades to be entered in the list, it will in many cases be impossible for these to reach the Heads of the Departments in the Provinces in time for the requisite alteration of the list before its dispatch on 31st December.

No. 12. ORDER THEREON, 22d October 1859, No. 1430.

The Government approve the suggestion in para. 2 of this letter, and direct accordingly that the lists of servants belonging to the several Settlement and Survey Departments, called for in the order quoted, be sent direct to the Secretary to Government in the Revenue Department.

2. The Government do not consider the objection urged in para. 2 to the submission of the Memorandum of alterations on the 31st December 1859, to be of any practical importance. Any officer holding such scruples about opening his office for an hour or two on a holiday may complete the statement of alterations up to the evening preceding the holidays and merely enter before despatch, any changes that may have occurred on the intervening days.

Secretary to Government.
