I have the honor to append in the margin, an abstract exhibiting at one view the amount sanctioned in 1853, that of the revised estimate forwarded for sanction on the 25th January 1858, and the actual expenditure on account of saderwared, during the last two Fuslies 1267 and 1268.

2. As compared with the sanctioned estimate, the total amount of expenditure in 1268 is an excess of Rupees 351. This is attributable chiefly to the steadily increasing prices of articles, which will be evident from the fact that the increase in the quantity of some of the items has been very slight.

3. On a comparison, however, with the revised estimate which was carefully prepared to meet existing circumstances, the result is a decrease of Rupees 401.

4. Under these circumstances, and with reference to the accompanying copy of a letter from the Civil Auditor, dated 31st May last, I have the honor to request the Board will be pleased to accord their early sanction to the actual expenditure under the head of saderwared for Fusly 1268 just part, amounting, as per margin, to Rupees 6,518-13-0, to enable the Civil Auditor to pass the unaudited amount.
