Mr. Eliott having been removed to the Judicial Department, I have found it necessary to place Narasimha Puntalú, one of the Deputy Collectors of this District, in charge of the Head Assistant's office at Ranipett. Narasimha Puntalú reports to me, in his letter of the 21st Instant, that no public building being available for the use of his office, he has been obliged to rent a house for the purpose at 10 Rupees per mensem from the 10th Instant. This expenditure, I have the honor to request that Government will authorize me to incur till the arrangements for combining Táluqs are in a sufficiently advanced state to admit of my determining, where my subordinates can be located to the best advantage.

2. The Government bungalow at Ranipett, formerly in the occupation of Mr. Eliott, is now, I am informed, in that of the Officer Commanding the station.
