PROCEEDINGS OF THE MADRAS GOVERNMENT.

Read the following papers.

From the Chief Engineer.

(Here enter 13th October 1859, No. 6118.)

Minute by the Honorable the President, dated 18th October 1859.

We may, I think, accede to Colonel Bell's recommendation in this case; but it should be understood that when persons holding public situations become insolvent, they will, as a matter of course, be suspended from the service; and will not be restored to it unless they are able clearly to prove that their insolvency was their misfortune and not their fault. This is the rule in all the Public Departments at Home.

C. E. TREVELYAN.

ORDER THEREON, 28th October 1859, No. 2539.

* * *

Paragraph 2. The Government resolve however to lay it down as the rule for the future, to be strictly observed by all heads of offices, that every person in public employ taking the benefit of the Insolvent Act shall ipso facto be suspended from the service; and shall not resume his duties without special orders from Government on a report to be made by the Head of the office in the case of each such servant, of the character required by paragraph 4 of Proceedings in the Public Department dated 10th August 1857 No. 1109.

Ordered that copy of the President's Minute above recorded, as well as of paragraph 2 of this order, be forwarded to the several Departments of the Secretariat for communication to the offices under their control respectively and also that they be laid on the Editor's table.
