No. 34. Read the following letter from C. PELLY, Esq., Member of the Board of Revenue; to J. D. BOURDILLON, Esq., Secretary to Government, Revenue Department, dated 15th November 1859, No. 86.

In reference to paragraph 2 of the Proceedings of Government, dated 17th June 1859, I have now the honor to report that I find some extra aid necessary to carry on the business connected with the revision of district and village establishments which has been entrusted to me by Government. As desired by Government in that order, I have hitherto availed myself of the services of a writer or two occasionally in the Board's office and Kacheri establishments, and the small temporary establishment attached to the Head Sarrishtadár of the Board's Kacheri for the revision of accounts. This extra establishment consists of a writer and gumasta with a mochi and peon, amounting to Rupees 47 out of the sanction of Government, dated 1st June 1858, No. 725 for Rupees 67.

2. The aid thus obtained from the Board's office and Kacheri establishments was sufficient for the limited extent of work hitherto performed; but as the operations of the revision have extended, the correspondence has been gradually increasing and requires the constant attention of an intelligent clerk to deal with the papers. It has been ascertained that the Board cannot spare an efficient hand exclusively for the work.

3. The temporary establishment referred to in the 1st paragraph is now engaged in preparing tables of revenues for a series of years, when not engaged on my work, and the revision of accounts. The temporary establishment will have to be abolished very shortly as the tables now in hand are nearly completed. But I beg to propose, that I may be allowed to retain that establishment for my work. They will be able to complete the preparation of tables under the general supervision of the Sarrishtadár at the same time. In addition to this, I require for the present only one English writer of some intelligence on a salary of 45 or 50 Rupees a month to have charge of my correspondence. When the revision of village establishments shall have advanced to some extent, more aid may perhaps be necessary; and, to avoid further reference on the subject, I beg to request that Government will be pleased to place at my disposal a sum not exceeding 150 Rupees a month, inclusive of the amount of temporary establishment already alluded to.

No. 35. ORDER THEREON, 23d November 1859, No. 1596.

Under the circumstances represented in this letter the Government authorise Mr. Pelly to incur a charge not exceeding Rupees (150) one hundred and fifty per mensem for temporary establishments, which will include the cost of the establishment already sanctioned for the revision of accounts.

Sir,

Dated 15th November 1859 No. 86

In reference to para 2 of the Proceedings of Government dated 17th June 1859, I have now the honor to report that I find some extra aid necessary to carry on the business connected with the provision of District and Village Establishments which has been entrusted to me by Government. As desired by Government in that order I have hitherto availed myself of the services of a writer or two occasionally in the Board's Office and Cutcherry Establishments, and the small temporary Establishment attached to the Head Sarrishtadar of the Board's Kachcheri for the provision of accounts. This extra Establishment consists of a Writer and Gumashta with a Mochie and peon Annum to Rupees 47 out of the sanction of Government dated 1st June 1858 No. 725 for Rs 69.

2. The aid thus obtained from the Board's Office and Hach'hari Establishments was sufficient for the limited extent of work hitherto performed; but as the operations of the revision have extended, the correspondence has been gradually increasing and requires the constant attention of an intelligent clerk to deal with the papers. It has been ascertained that the Board cannot spare an efficient hand exclusively for the work.

3. The temporary Establishment referred to in the 1st para is now engaged in preparing Tables of pensions for a series of years, when not engaged on my work, and the revision of Accounts. The temporary Establishment will have to be abolished very shortly as the Tables now in hand are nearly completed. But I beg to propose that I may be allowed to retain that Establishment for my work. They will be able to complete the preparation of Tables under the general supervision of the Sarrishtadar at the same time. In addition to this I require for the present only one English writer of some intelligence on a Salary of 45 or 50 Rupees a month to have charge of my correspondence. When the revision of Village Establishments shall have advanced to some extent, more aid may perhaps be necessary; and to avoid further reference on the subject, I beg to request that Government will be pleased to place at my disposal a sum not exceeding 150 Rupees a month inclusive of the amount of temporary Establishment already alluded to.
