No. 3. Read the following Remarks of the Board of Revenue, dated 21st November 1859, No. 4764, on the following tabular report of lapsed pensions.

No. 4444, From the Acting Collector of Cuddapah, dated 2d September 1859.

(In Con. 6th September 1859.)

No. 1.—The Board concur in the recommendation of the Acting Collector for the continuance of the pension enjoyed by the late incumbent Vencatapah Naidoo, in the name of his son Thimena Naidoo.

No. 2.—In this case, it appears that the pension passed from Atchamah, the widow of the original grantee, to her husband's nephew and known adopted son Triniala Naidoo, under the sanction of Government, dated 29th July 1843, No. 826.

In Con. 3d August 1843, No. 1906. The Board recommend its continuance to Soobba Naidoo, the son of the last incumbent, as proposed by the Acting Collector.

No. 3.—The Board agree in the opinion that Ravanappah the son of the deceased by his first wife, is the proper party to succeed to this allowance. They support the Acting Collector's recommendation for its registery in his name.

(By order.)
(Signed) W. HUDLESTON, Acting Secretary.

No. 4. ORDER THEREON, 1st December 1859, No. 1632.

The papers give no information as to the condition on which the pensions referred to in their remarks were originally conferred. The Board of Revenue will be requested to supply the omission.

(Signed) J. D. BOURDILLON,
Secretary to Government.
