No. 184

Dated 10-2-1859

Fort Saint George, Revenue Consultation of 15th February 1859.

No. 24. Read the following Remarks of the Board of Revenue, dated 27th January 1859, on a Tabular Report from the Acting Collector of Salem, dated 7th December 1858, No. 50, on a lapsed Inam, No. 317.

(In Cons. 28th December 1858, No. 5588.)

In support of this grant an order issued by a Subadar, is produced, by which it appears that the Inam comprising 50 Goontahs, or as entered in the public accounts, Acre 1 G. 10 A. 12 of wet land bearing an assessment of Rupees 6-2 was granted, in 1772, to the last holder's father, a blacksmith by profession, as compensation for his services during the Mahratta rule. In the Survey accounts of 1797 the Inam stands registered in the name of the said individual. The Acting Collector recommends its resumption on the ground of its being a personal grant and that the service for which it was bestowed is not now performed.

2. On the other hand however the grant was made previous to the date mentioned in Section II. Regulation XXXI. of 1802, and has been regularly transmitted to the last incumbent. On these grounds the Board recommend the continuance of the lapsed share (viz. one-third of the Inam assessed at Rupees 2-0-8) to Madovachary the eldest son of the deceased.

(By Order,)

No. 25. ORDER THEREON, No. 184; dated 10th February 1859.

The Government concur with the recommendation of the Collector in this case. In the first place they observe, the alleged author of the grant ("Subadár Narasanna") could have no authority to alienate land in perpetuity. But even conceding this point, there is nothing in the grant to shew that it was not strictly personal, and as such it should have been resumed at the grantee's death. Moreover the service, for which it was granted, has long since ceased to be required. The Government consequently direct that the Inám be brought to full assessment. The remaining shares of the Inám, will be considered as life grants to the present holders.

Secretary to Government.

The Govt. concurs with the recommendation of the Collector in this case.
In the first place they observe,
the ^{alleged} author of the grant "Sabadin Narayanan" / could have no authority to alienate land in perpetuity. But, ^{even} conceding this point there is nothing in the grant to show that it was not strictly personal, and as such it should have been renewed at the greatest death.
Moreover the service, for which it was granted, has long since ceased to be required. The Govt. consequently direct that the Prām be bought to fulfil the agreement. The remaining share of the Prām, will be considered as life grants
to the present holders.
