Read again letters from the Director of Revenue Settlement dated 30th November 1858, and 3rd January 1859, and recorded in Diary to Consultation 21st December 1858, and Consultation 18th January 1859, Nos. 1705 and 69.

No. 5. Read also the following letter from H. NEWILL, Esq., Director of Revenue Settlement; to J. D. BOURDILLON, Esq., Secretary to Government, Revenue Department, Fort St. George; dated Trichinopoly, 2nd February 1859, No. 87.

SIR,

Para. 1. I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of Extract Minutes Consultation dated 18th Ultimo No. 69, requesting me to state "at what amount of rent can be procured a "house that will provide suitable accommodation for my office establishment, and for the furni- "ture, Records, &c., pertaining to the office," and in reply to inform you that I do not consider that full accommodation for the office and all its requirements can be obtained under 100 Rupees per mensem, and I have engaged a house for the purpose at a trifle above that sum.

2. As regards the time subsequent to the sanction of the establishments by the Government of India on 10th March last, communicated on 12th Idem, up to the beginning of the year, I may observe that $\frac{3}{4}$th of the sum above named would suffice for the accommodation, as the office establishment was not fully made up, and the room required for Records, furniture and Stationery was not so considerable as it is now.

3. The sum specified will I hope be thought reasonable, particularly as it is the same as that allowed for the same purpose to the Director of Public Instruction, whose establishment appears smaller than mine.

No. 6. ORDER THEREON, No. 248; dated 26th February 1859.

The Right Honorable the Governor in Council authorizes the Director of Revenue Settlement to engage a house for the accommodation of his office at a monthly rent not greatly exceeding Rupees (100) one hundred per mensem. The necessary authority for the Audit Department will be granted on Mr. Newill reporting the exact amount of the rent and the date from which the house has been engaged.

(Signed) J. D. BOURDILLON,
Secretary to Government.
