Sir,

I have the honor to forward by Bangy a fac-simile of the Copper Deed granting certain Villages to Nullathumbi Bhutt struck in the printing press-all efforts to take one by Heel ball failed in consequence of the unevenness of the plate and from the edges of the letters being raised. The writing appears to have been stamped and not engraved.

2 Two Copies are also sent made by pasting paper over the plate, then damping the paper and putting the whole in the press. the impressions of the the letters being afterwards marked, one in Pencil, the other in Ink.
