Fort Saint George, Revenue Consultation of 15th March 1859.

No. 10. Read the following Remarks of the Board of Revenue, dated 18th February 1859, on a Tabular Report on a lapsed Inam from the Acting Collector of Salem, dated 3rd February 1859, No. 630.

(In Con. 7th February 1859, No. 481.)

The Inam, which consists of A. 1, G. 0, As. 13, assessed at Rupee 1-8-0 appears to be a charitable grant, but when, or by whom made is not known; nor is there any evidence to shew how it was obtained by the last holders, who died eight years ago. The Inam has been left waste since 20 years; and the widow, who is the only claimant, holds other Inams assessed at Rupees 9. Under the above circumstances the Board concur with the Acting Collector in recommending that the lapsed Inam be resumed.

2. The cause of the excessive delay in reporting this case should have been explained by the Acting Collector.

(By Order.)

(Signed) J. D. SIM, Secretary.

No. 11. ORDER THEREON, No. 295; dated 10th March 1859.

The resumption of this Inam, which has been waste for twenty years, and to claim which no connections of the registered holder have appeared, is sanctioned.

Secretary to Government.
