The situation of the Head Sheristadar having fallen vacant, the Board proposed to place their first Assistant on the same footing as a Deputy Collector of the 1st Class by adding to his pay Rupees 100 out of the salary of the vacant post and raising it from five to six hundred. They urged in support of this proposal that the appointment is one requiring high qualifications, and that it should be made an object of desire to the superior grade of Deputy Collectors about to be appointed. The arrangement was sanctioned, subject to the confirmation of the Government of India. Vide Ex. Mins. Cons. 8th November 1858, No. 1507.

This scale left little or no room for the gradual promotion of this class of servants, and thus there was no opportunity to encourage the more active and useful of them. The Collector therefore proposed a re-distribution of the salaries according to the amount of labor and responsibility devolving on the Tahsildars, and the Board of Revenue supported the proposal with a slight modification. The Government concurring with the Board authorized the arrangement, and ordered it to be introduced as vacancies should occur. Vide Extract Minutes Consultation 22nd December 1858, No. 1703.
