No. 30.

Bellary Collectors Office
7th July 1859.

From,

A. Hathaway Esqre., Collector of,
Bellary,

To,

J. D. Bourdillon Esqre.,
Secretary to Government,
Revenue Department,
Fort Saint George,

Sir,

With reference to the appointment (in the Official Gazette) of the 17th Ultimo of Annadoss, the Tahsildar of Goodlore, to be a Deputy Collector of the 4th Class; I have the honor to request instructions.

2. The notification contains no information as to what District he is to be appointed.

3. He obtained leave on private affairs for three months, on the 14th March 1859, and after its expiry, he applied for an extension of a month & a half, which has been granted him, with an understanding that as it is for his own convenience, that he does not take up his appointment of Deputy Collector, he could not expect to draw the Emoluments

of

of the new appointment till he assumed it.

4. At present I am unable permanently to fill up the appointment of Tahsildar.

5 I would also, with due deference, remark, that I do not think it advisable that he be appointed to this District.

6 His brother, and several other relatives, hold office in this District, and as his period of service amounts to only twelve years, his rapid promotion has given rise to a good deal of jealousy amongst those of older standing.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most Obedient Servant

A. Matthews
