Memorandum

For
The Secretary to Government
Judicial Department

The Deputy Quarter Master General, has the honor to inform the Secretary to Government in reply to his Memo^r of yesterday's date N^o 325, that there are no Public Bullocks posted for the conveyance of Troops by Transit from Vellore or any where else. Troops are carried at fixed rates by one or more of the private Companies or Individuals who advertise to do that work between Vellore and Bangalore - and these Bills are forwarded weekly for check in this Office, and are passed by the Military Auditor in General

The only Road on which the Transit is employed by this Office, is that via Palmanair.
