

Revenue Consultation.

No 621.

Dated 4th to 10th May 1859

621

Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, from 4th to 10th May 1859.

No. 16. Read the following letter from W. HUDLESTON, Esq., Sub-Secretary to the Board of Revenue; to J. D. BOURDILLON, Esq., Secretary to Government Revenue Department; dated Fort Saint George, 4th May 1859, No. 1590.

From Mr. Jellicoe, 21st in Consultation 27th April 1859.
Official Memo. to Civil Auditor 30th April 1859.
From Civil Auditor 3rd May 1859.

I am directed by the Board of Revenue to submit the accompanying papers for the favorable consideration of Government.

2. Mr. Jellicoe's appointment to be Deputy Collector of Kurnool was published in the Gazette of 8th March, and under the rule stated in the Civil Auditor's memo. of 3d Instant, it would seem that Mr. Jellicoe should have joined at Kurnool on 4th April, or, allowing Date appointment 8th March.

Time to join Kurnool from Masulipatam 300 miles at 15 miles per diem 20 days 28th March One week for preparation 4th April six days for the Gazette to reach him on or about 10th April at latest.

3. On 21st April Mr. Jellicoe addressed the Board from Masulipatam requesting "an extension of leave" to the 21st May on urgent private affairs and the Board forwarded the application to the Civil Auditor for the favorable consideration of Government explaining in a subsequent memo. that they presumed Mr. Jellicoe's intention was to obtain an extension of the time allowed for taking up his appointment, as he did not appear to have obtained any previous leave.

4. From Mr. Lushington's memo. of 3d Instant it now appears that Mr. Jellicoe will be liable to forfeiture of appointment should he not join his station on or about 10th Instant apparently, and under these circumstances the Board beg leave to recommend that he be granted an extension of time to the 21st Instant, as he was probably not aware of the bearing of the rules on his case, and the Board are in a position to know that the reasons were urgent for the application.

No. 17. ORDER THEREON, 5th May 1859, No. 621.

It was Mr. Jellicoe's duty to take up his appointment under the rules; instead of doing so he did not even apply for leave till after the expiry of his proper time of joining. The Governor in Council however is unwilling to act harshly towards him, and he allows him till the 21st instant to join, agreeably to the Board's recommendation.

(Signed) J. D. BOURDILLON,
Secretary to Government.

Memorandum.

The Civil Auditor begs to inform the Secretary to the Board of Revenue, in reply to his memorandum of the 30th Ultimo, that in the absence of specific information regarding Mr. Jellicoe's place of residence at the time of being appointed a Deputy Collector & the Station to which he has been appointed, he is unable to express an opinion; as to the eligibility of Mr. Jellicoe to an extension of time to join.

The rules for joining are definite, at the rate of 15 miles a day must be travelled, & a Week is allowed for preparations. Should Mr. Jellicoe exceed the term which will be computed from the date of his appointment, he will be liable to the penalties attached to the rules. Viz: forfeiture of pay during the time over-stayed, & a liability to loss of appointment, should the period overstayed exceed one month.
