Book No 56 & 57

Order No 765 of 8th June 1859

No. 56. Read the following letter from W. HUDLESTON, Esq., Sub- Secretary to the Court of Wards; to J. D. BOURDILLON, Esq., Secretary to Government, R. D., dated 17th May 1859, No. 1811.

I am directed by the Court of Wards to request the sanction of Government for their assuming charge of the Estate of the Minor proprietor of Luckevaram, &c. situated in the Rajahmundry District, and of the village of Bynagoodiem belonging to his widowed mother in the same District, the latter at her own request.

	Village.	Peishcush.
Luckevaram	5	2643 9 9
Billoomilly...	1	1619 13 6
Jungareddy Goodiem ...	1	499 10 0
	7 Rs.	4763 1 3
Bynagoodiem	1	1008 12 4
Total...	8 Rs.	5771 13 7

2. The annual Peishcush due on account of the eight Villages included in these Estates is Rupees 5,771-13-7, and the landlord's rent for the current Fusly is settled at Rupees 8,470.

3. Muntri Pregada Boojunga Row, the father of the Minor was the Abkarry renter of the Masulipatam District and died on 18th December last.

The unexpired portion of the Abkarry lease has at his request been continued to his eldest widow.

4. Shortly before his death he addressed letters to the Collectors of Rajahmundry and Masulipatam praying that the charge of his Estates might be assumed by the Court of Wards for the benefit of his only son and heir, and that one Dhurmaraz Kodandaramiah might be nominated guardian to the minor. He appears also to have wished that his eldest widow, the boy's mother, should be a joint guardian.

5. He left three other widows, and three daughters, one by the first wife and two by the second, all young.

6. The main portion of the personal Estate, consisting of Jewels and Cash, is lodged in the Masulipatam Treasury as security for the rent of the Abkarry farm—and there is real property in houses and lands situated in that District, valued at Rupees 10,350.

The debts due to the Estate, according to the account of the eldest widow amount to Rupees 50,100, of which the larger portion is due by the Noozeed Zemindar.

7. The three younger widows of the deceased live separately, and are said not to be possessed of any amount of property. The second has a maintenance of Rupees 100 allowed her by a decree of the Moonsiff's Court.

8. The minor heir is now about 10 years of age and learns Telugu at home from an ordinary Teacher.

9. In the event of Government approving of the Court's proposal they design to appoint the Collectors of Rajahmundry and Masulipatam Agents for the care of the portions of the Estate situated in their respective Districts and for the due realization of the assets, but to prevent confusion, they will request the Collector of Masulipatam to submit the periodical information connected with the Ward and his Estate, through the Collector of Rajahmundry, in which District the chief portion of the landed Estate is situated.

10. They will also arrange for the proper education of their Ward, and the maintenance of the other members of the family.

No. 57. ORDER THEREON, 8th June 1859, No. 765.

The Government grant authority to the Court of Wards to assume charge of the Estate of the minor proprietor of Luckevaram, &c., and of the village of Bynagoodiem belonging to his mother. The arrangements proposed in paras. 9 and 10 are approved.

(Signed) J. D. BOURDILLON,
Secretary to Government.
