No. 13. Read the following Petition.

To His Excellency C. E. TREVELYAN, K. C. B. Governor in Council of Fort St. George, &c., &c., &c.

The humble Petition of Ingoova Ramasawmy Iyah, adopted son of the late Ingoova Ramachendriah, Enamadar of Parlapully in Nellore, dated Madras 25th May 1859.

HUMBLY SHEWETH,

With reference to the Memorial presented by Petitioner's natural father C. Vencata-narainiah on his behalf to the Honorable the Court of Directors on the 15th January 1857, soliciting that the village of Parlapully may be placed in the possession of your present Petitioner the adopted son of Ingoovah Ramachendriah and which Memorial was kindly forwarded by Government on the 9th April of the same year, to the Honorable the Court of Directors to which no reply appears to have as yet been received, permit him most respectfully to state, that in consequence of the usurpation of the Estate of the deceased Ingoovah Ramachendriah by his widow Vencatalutcheemummah. Your Petitioner brought a suit against her in the Supreme Court of Judicature at Madras to establish his right as such adopted son and for the recovery of the Estate in question. The Court after carefully investigating the question at issue and hearing counsel on both sides decreed that your Petitioner was "entitled as the "adopted son of Ingoovah Ramachendriah to his property, Estates and effects real and personal" and that his adoptive mother had a right to maintenance only for life, a copy of which Decree your Petitioner begs leave to forward for your Excellency's information.

The highest Judicial authority in Madras having thus finally disposed of the matter with regard to Petitioner's claim and recognized him as the adopted son of the deceased Ramachendriah, he now most humbly solicits your Excellency in Council graciously to pass early orders directing in pursuance of that decree that the village of Parlapully be restored and registered in his name, it being at present in the possession of his adoptive mother Vencatalutcheemummah under the orders of Government pending the decision of the Supreme Court.

All the property within the limits of the Jurisdiction of the Supreme Court has been already ordered to be made over to him, but the village of Parlapully being situated in the District of Nellore, it is necessary that an order should proceed from Government as above solicited in as much as Vencatalutcheemummah continues in the enjoyment of the Village under the permission of Government and in as much as the Supreme Court have prohibited her from in any manner interfering or intermeddling with the said estate and effects of the said J. Ramachendriah.

Petitioner therefore most humbly solicits your Excellency in Council to pass early orders to the Collector of Nellore to place him in immediate possession of the village of Parlapully pursuant to the decree of the Supreme Court.

For this act of justice and benevolence your petitioner as in duty bounded well ever pray,

No. 14.

ORDER THEREON, 9th July 1859, No. 916.

If the petitioner will furnish Government with an attested copy of the decree of the Supreme Court in his favor, his request will be taken into consideration.
