No. 333

From

The Acting Inspector General of Ordnance and Magazines

To

The Secretary to Government
Revenue Department

Sir,

I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of the Proceedings of Government dated 29th December 1859, and to submit to the Right Honorable the Governor the name of Mr. J. H. Cardozo as a Gentleman qualified to hold one of the appointments referred to in the Revenue Department. Mr. Cardozo holds the present position of Manager in the Inspector Generals Office, and is a Gentleman whom I can with entire Confidence recommend to the favor of Government.

2 I beg to annex in the Margin the opinion left on record by Col. Balfour C.B. on leaving the Office for employment in the Finance Department, and

Mr. J. H. Cardozo a thorough man of business, energetic, zealous and decident but withal conciliatory, well qualified to direct a large business and to superintend and control duties as a head, a practical and efficient Accountant ready to a good degree in looking into Accounts, able to devise with great and good results, and very acute and intelligent.

the experience I have myself had of the of the Office I feel justified in expressing my full concurrence in Colonel Balfour's opinion of the meritorious conduct and ability of Mr Cardozo, and I venture to express the hope that the valuable opening which the Honorable the Governor has so liberally made for Heads of Departments putting forward the names of deserving Public Servants will place at the disposal of the State, for important employ, men of principle and ability

I have the honor to be,
Sir,
Your Most Obdt Servant
