No. 3. Read the following Extract from the Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 6th June 1859, No. 2086.

(In Con. 29th April 1859, No. 1904.)

Resolved that the foregoing letter be laid before Government, with the Board's recommendation that sanction be granted for disbursing to A. Comapen Nair the sum of Rupees 133-5-4, being the customary Jenmabhogum or $\frac{1}{6}$th of the value of an Elephant entrapped in 1854 on a spot of land in the Wynaad Talook, which it has since been ascertained belongs to that individual.

2. The amount was carried to the credit of Government owing to a doubt having arisen at the time of the capture of the animal as to who was the rightful proprietor of the land.

No. 4. ORDER THEREON, 18th June 1859, No. 808.

Sanction granted for the disbursement recommended in these proceedings, viz. Rs. (133-5-4) one hundred and thirty three, annas five and pice four.

IN CON. 29TH APRIL 1859, No. 1904.

From P. GRANT, Esq., Collector of MALABAR, dated Calicut, 23rd April 1859, No. 80.

It appears that in the year 1854, an elephant was entrapped by an individual named Veeraparaven Ramen Chetty, in the Wynaad Talook, and that owing to a doubt as to who was the rightful proprietor of the spot where this circumstance occurred, whether the Government or some private party the Jemmabhogum (one sixth the value of the animal) was deposited in my Treasury and ultimately carried to the credit of Government.

2. An investigation into the proprietorship of the spot in question, having been instituted, the individual noted in the margin has been ascertained to be the rightful owner of the spot adverted to, and as such the party to whom the fee* should be disbursed I have therefore the honor to request you will obtain the sanction of Government to my refunding the same to the Jemy above alluded to.

Atherkoden Comapen Nair.

* Rupees 133-5-4.
