The Yeomiah in question was granted by Tippú for the preparation of the Punchangum (Almanac). The allowance in 1828 was shared by Narasinnah Josí and Sítaráma Josí, the former died in November 1857, leaving a widow and a son.

2. The Collector in consideration of the service not having been performed for a long time,* recommended its resumption; but the Board on account of the destitute circumstances of the widow of the last holder, recommend that the Yeomiah, amounting to Rupees 17-8-0 per annum, might be continued to her for life. The family of the deceased possess Putcut lands assessed at Rupees 6-5-4 and ⅓ share of Bhutvurty Inam land valued at Rupees 31-9-9 subject to a jodigy of Rupees 15-12-10.

3. Since the submission of this case, another question has arisen as to certain arrears amounting to Rupees 55-5-1 being paid to the son of the deceased. It appears that the deceased returned in July 1857 from a pilgrimage to Benares (which he had undertaken with the Collector's permission) and applied the following September for the payment of arrears during his absence, he was accordingly ordered on the 24th October 1857 to attend muster, but failed to do so, and died in November 1857.

This Yeomiahdar, having returned to his village of Darampoory (distant about 42 miles from Salem) in July 1857, from a pilgrimage to Benares on which he had proceeded, with the Collector's permission in March 1855, applied on the following September for the payment of arrears. 2. He was ordered on the 24th October, to attend muster forthwith. 3. He however defaulted, and died in November 1857. 4. His widow Lutchmamal claims, on behalf of herself and her son, (who is 5 years old) the said arrears, which amount to Rupees 55-5-1, as shewn in column 7 of this Statement. 5. From the default of the late Yeomiahdar to appear at muster, the arrears have clearly escheated to Government; but, as I have recommended the resumption of the Yeomiah in my report (dated 7th January 1859) of its lapse, I would suggest that the widow's request be acceeded to as a favor. 6. The Tahsildar of Darampoory, whose report only reached this office on the 27th Ultimo, has been fined for his negligence.
