Government of Madras.

Revenue DEPARTMENT.

G.O. No.	828	Press Mis.

Dated 24th June 1858.

Not to be folded or roughly handled

No. 46. Read the following letter from J. D. SIM, Esq., Secretary to the Board of Revenue ; to J. D. BOURDILLON, Esq., Secretary to Government, Revenue Department ; dated 11th June 1859, No. 2204.

I am directed by the Board of Revenue to request the sanction of Government, for taking under their charge, as Court of Wards, the estate of Barwah, in Ganjam.

From Ganjam 20th Oct. in Con. 24th November 1858, No. 4975.

2. This property pays a Peshcush of Rupees 7,800, and was purchased by Boyanapadhi Radinga, who died in 1855, leaving a widow, an infant son and a younger undivided brother.

From Ganjam 17th Oct. in Con. 28th Nov. 1858, 1300.

3. The estate was registered in the name of the son only, on the ground that the brother had not been registered, as joint proprietor, during the life time of the deceased proprietor. The brother was, however, allowed to manage the property.

4. The widow and brother shortly afterwards quarrelled, and the Commissioner, in 1856, recommended that the estate (which meanwhile had been attached for an outstanding arrear) should be placed under his wardship.

From Commissioner to Govt. 29th February 1856.

E. M. C. 16th April 1856, R. D. No. 381, in Con. 24th April 1856, No. 478.

5. The Government, however, did not assent to this proposition.

6. The brother himself has now died, leaving a widow and three sons. The widow and son of the original purchaser are also alive. The sons are all under age.

7. The widows, at first, agreed that the management of the property should be left to them jointly, through two nephews of theirs aided by a Goomastah ; but they are now at variance on this point, the widow of the purchaser preferring the interposition of the Court of Wards.

8. The Board are of opinion, that the interests of the four minors render it necessary that the estate should be taken under wardship. The management of the widows, supposing their present dissensions to cease, is not likely to be successful and there is little chance of the education of the minors being properly attended to.

9. The estate is registered in the name of the son of the original purchaser and will so continue until otherwise ordered by a competent tribunal.

No. 47. ORDER THEREON, 23rd June 1859, No. 828.

The Government grant authority for the Estate of Barwah in the District of Ganjam being taken under the charge of the Court of Wards.

(Signed) J. D. BOURDILLON,
Secretary to Government.
