Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, from 2d to 8th July 1859.

No. 15. Read the following Remarks of the Board of Revenue, dated 16th February 1859, on a Tabular Report on a lapsed Jaghire from the Acting Collector of Salem; dated 20th January 1859, No. 600.

(In Con. 24th January 1859, No. 308.)

From the accompanying translation of an order dated 21st April 1793, issued by Colonel Alexander Read, Collector of Salem, it appears that the Jaghire village referred to in the above report was granted by Lord Cornwallis, on hereditary tenure, to Lalla Jeycurran Choudery and his son Lutche Ram, both of whom died many years ago. On the demise of Lutche Ram, one of the original grantees, the Jaghire was by an order of the Civil Court, dated 26th January 1856, registered in the joint names of the last holder his daughter by his second wife, and Jeyakurna adopted son of the same wife. Both of them have since died without issue, and the Jaghire is claimed—1st, by the great grandson of the original grantee on the daughter's side; 2nd, by the manager of the Trepetty Pagoda in virtue of a will said to have been executed by the last holder; 3rd, by a daughter-in-law of the last holder's cousin; 4th, by a brother of the last incumbent's husband; 5th, by a son of the last holder's cousin. Of these the first appears to
