G.O. No. 885 — Press / Mis.

Dated 8th July 1859.

Not to be folded or roughly handled

Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, from 2d to 8th July 1859.

No. 27. Read the following letter from the Honorable HENRY RICKETTS, Esq.; to T. PYCROFT, Esq., Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George; dated Bangalore, 18th June 1859.

We remained for a day at the Palmanair Dák Bungalow, and I am quite sure that neither you nor your chief are aware of the want of all comforts therein. There are 5 chairs the bottoms of three of which are gone. I gave the butler three Rupees with which he promised to have the bottoms restored, but the chairs should be re-placed by neat improved articles. Two Wash-hand stands with basins &c., two small tables, and a good commode would suffice to make the place decently comfortable. But the great want is two bathing rooms which should be run up to the East and West. Ladies do not like walking across the compound to an extremely uncomfortable shop, neither do they like a thin cloth screen. A great many people put up at this resting place, and for the credit of the Presidency it should bear comparison with Travellers' Bungalows in other parts. I make no apology for troubling you with this, for I know such arrangements are not designedly allowed.

No. 28. ORDER THEREON, 4th July 1859, No. 885.

The Governor in Council resolves to transmit a copy of this paper to the Board of Revenue who will call on the Acting Collector of North Arcot to account for the very neglected state of things in the Palmanair Travellers' Bungalow. The Board will also take measures without delay to supply the wants noticed by Mr. Ricketts.

(Signed) J. D. BOURDILLON,
Secretary to Government.
