With reference to your Official Memo. dated 29th ultimo, requesting me to state, with reference to my tabular report of a lapsed Dehaut Inam dated 10th March 1859, whether I have taken measures to satisfy myself of the identity of the late Inamdar Hoossain Beebee whose allowance was withheld from 12th January 1856 to the date of her decease on account of her refusal to appear, I have the honor to state for the information of the Board that I have personally examined two Dehaut Inamdars of Poonjee, attached to Cauverypauk Talook, in which the deceased Inamdar lived regarding her identity; and they, after having been warned that if their statement was proved to be false their allowance would be forfeited, are certified that the deceased, who was well known to them as being their relative, was the person entitled to the Inam.
