Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, 15th October 1860.

No. 236. Read the following letter from J. B. CROWTHER, Esq., Secretary to the Madras Sailors Home, to T. PYCROFT, Esq., Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George, dated Madras, 10th October 1860:—

SIR,

The Accountant General acting under the impression that such was justifiable under the operation of the Income Tax Act, having deducted from the Government allowance to the Sailors Home the sum of Rupees four, on account of the said tax, I have the honor by direction of the Committee in charge of the above Institution, to solicit that Government will be pleased to remit the tax on the allowance in question, and authorize its being paid in full, on the ground that, the Home as a charitable Institution may be considered as entitled to exemption. Trusting that their present request will be granted, the Committee would further beg that what has already been deducted, may be refunded.

No. 237.

ORDER THEREON, 15th October 1860, No. 1,870.

Under Section 133 of Act XXXII of 1860 the Honorable the Governor in Council is pleased to exempt the Government allowance to the Sailors Home from Income tax; the sums already levied or stopped on that account will be refunded.

(Signed) J. D. BOURDILLON,

Secretary to Government.
