It has been brought to my notice that inconvenience has been experienced in India from the want of a supply of Acts of Parliament as they are passed during the Session. I am aware that you are regularly supplied with Volumes containing all the Acts passed during each Session of Parliament shortly after its close; but in order to prevent any such inconvenience for the future, I shall give directions for your being supplied, through the Public Department, with three copies of all Acts of Parliament, as they are passed during the Session, the Volumes of Acts being still furnished to you at the close of the Session as heretofore.

Transferred to the Public Department.

(Signed) C. G. MASTER,
