Three months have now passed and the Fasli is ended, and yet the Government learn that Tolasinga Mudali has not yet joined the Inám Commissioner. The Government cannot suppose that the settlement of the Sub-Collector's Táluqs is not yet completed; and at all events they desire that Tolasinga Mudali may be directed to join the Inám Commissioner forthwith. He has already been detained longer than was intended when the Order was passed.

2. The Collector of South Arcot will also be requested to state whether Dévasakamani Pillai has proceeded to take up his appointment in Coimbatore; and if not when he proposes to allow him to do so.
