No. 33. Read the following letter from A. MONTCLAR, Esq., to J. D. BOURDILLON, Esq., Secretary to Government, Revenue Department, dated 15th December 1859.

1. I have the honor to forward this application, for copies of all letters and documents which have passed between Government and myself, on the subject of "Valagatoodoo 75 acres."

2. As my letters to the Collector of Rajahmundri, as well as many others addressed to "Government" and to the "Board of Revenue" have been generally translated, I wish to be in possession of copies of the whole (originals and translations) that I may ascertain if there is likely to have any misinterpretation of their sense.

3. I hope that the Government will have no hesitation with complying with this request.

No. 34. ORDER THEREON, 24th January 1860, No. 116.

Resolved accordingly that copies of the papers on the records of Government, as per accompanying list, be furnished to Mr. Montclar, and that the Board of Revenue and the Collector of the Godávari district be requested to furnish him with such other papers on the same subject as may be before them.
