6.

The Military Auditor General in submitting the correspondence noted in the Margin, containing an application from Captain R. D. Pratt, Deputy Superintendent Revenue Survey, Ristna District, for leave of absence on Medical Certificate, for one month from date of leaving his District, has the honor to observe that being recommended by the Superintendent of Revenue Survey, and Director of Revenue Settlements, there appears no objection to Government complying with the application.

2. Captain Priestly states in para 2 of his letter that the documents addressed to the Deputy Inspector General of Hospitals have been transmitted to him; they should have accompanied the application for leave.
