1. I am directed by the Board of Revenue to request the authority of Government for paying to Desai Ráma Ráu, a Tahsíldár in the Bellary District, Rupees 174-3-1, being the undrawn arrears of pay due to him at 90 Rupees per mensem from the 24th October 1859 for one month and 29 days, during which he was under suspension by order of the Collector on a charge of borrowing money from a Sáhukár in his Táluq, and of using his influence to obtain loans from the same man for others.

2. On a full Report received from the Collector on the case, the Board remitted the punishment of suspension, deeming it a sufficient punishment to remove Desai Ráma Ráu to another Táluq, and directed the Collector to warn all Tahsíldárs that the Board consider it highly objectionable for Officers at the head of Táluqs to be engaged in pecuniary transactions either on their own account or on that of others, with money lenders, merchants, &c., within their respective jurisdiction.

No. 358 ORDER THEREON, 28th July 1860, No. 1,262.

The Board of Revenue are requested to send up the papers connected with the case of Desai Ráma Ráu referred to in this letter.
