From G. SMITH, Esq., M.D., Residency Surgeon and Superintendent Medical School, Hyderabad, to Lieutenant-Colonel C. DAVIDSON, C.B., British Resident, Hyderabad, dated Hyderabad Residency, 17th July 1860, No. 16.

1. I have the honor to report to you that I have been advised of the despatch from England† of a large supply of Medical Stores, including drugs, chemicals, utensils, &c., for the supply of the Táluq Dispensaries established by the Minister, and to request that you will, as on previous occasions, obtain the sanction of the Madras Government to these Stores being landed free of duty.

† 6th April 1860, per "Seringapatam" care of Messrs. Arbuthnot and Co., Madras.

2. You are aware that these Dispensaries are purely Charitable Institutions, and regarding them in this light, the Madras Government has hitherto permitted the Stores to be passed free of duty.
