Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, 4th August 1860.

No. 32. Read the following Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 23rd July 1860, No. 3,369 :—

Read letter from the Collector of Madras dated 5th July 1860, No. 233, furnishing a Genealogical Tree of the family of Subadár Mohammad Ghouse of the Body Guard.

(In Cons., 7th July 1860, No. 3,291.)

1. Resolved that the above letter and its enclosure be submitted to Government with reference to their Order dated 6th June 1859, Revenue Department, No. 755, and in continuation of the Board's Proceedings dated 23rd idem, No. 2,407.

In Cons., 8th June 1859, No. 2,657.

2. The Government wish to be informed of "the whole family and descendants of the first "grantee of the Jáhgír" of Kádambákam in the Madras District.

3. The first* grantee had a "Shádi" and two "Nikah" wives. By the former he had two sons and two daughters. The eldest son died unmarried; the two daughters married and had issue, but they, their husbands and children are all dead. The second† son succeeded to the Jáhgír as the second life.

* A in Collector's Tree.

† B in Tree.

4. By one of the "Nikah" wives, the first grantee had a son who died unmarried, and a daughter who married and had issue, a daughter. These last are both dead, but the first grantee's widow and the daughter's husband survive. The other Nikah wife was divorced.

5. The second son of the "Shádi" wife succeeded to the Jáhgír, and also married two wives. By his "Shádi" wife he had issue, a daughter‡ (now enjoying the Jáhgír) who married and had two children, a son and daughter. The "Nikah" wife apparently had no children; she has re-married, and is now alive.

‡ C in Tree.

6. The daughter of the "Shádi" wife is now in possession of the Jághír as the third life; her husband and infant son are alive, but the daughter died unmarried.

7. The surviving descendants of the first grantee are therefore his granddaughter (the present incumbent,) her husband, and their child, his great grandson.

8. The first grantee had three brothers and a sister, whose issue, so far as can be ascertained, are given in the Collector's Genealogical Tree which was furnished by the uncle and agent of the Jáhgírdár.

9. The various Orders of Government on the snbject of the Jáhgír are quoted in the Board's Proceedings, No. 2,407, dated 23rd June 1859.
