No. 84. Read the following letter from J. D. SIM, Esq., Secretary to the Board of Revenue; to T. PYCROFT, Esq., Chief Secretary to Government, dated 18th January 1860, No. 278.

To Government, 19*th September* 1859, No. 3731.
From Government, 6*th October* 1859, Revenue Department No. 1356.
In Consultation, 6*th October* 1859, No. 4997.
" 29*th December* " " 6506.

1. With reference to the correspondence noted in the margin, I am directed by the Board of Revenue to submit herewith, a letter from Mr. W. H. Bayley, dated London, 26th November 1859, forwarding complete accounts of the purchases made by him for the Madras bungalows and requesting a remittance for the balance due.

The account stand as follows:—

	£.	s.	d.
Mr. Gillian's bill for plated ware and cutlery.....	1,083	4	4
Messrs. Gardner's bill for crockery, glass and lamps.....	651	10	2
Charge for 37 dozens additional egg spoons	32	10	0
Stamps.....	1	0	0
	1,768	4	6
Deduct.
Amount remitted to Mr. Bayley under the sanction of Government, dated 6th October 1859.....	802	7	6
Balance.....	965	17	0

2. Mr. Bayley requests that a bill for 966£ may be forwarded to him. The Board propose to remit that amount by next mail, and request that the Accountant General may be authorized to place at their disposal its equivalent at the exchange of the day.

3. Mr. Bayley's original estimate amounted to £1,604-15-0, but including shipping and other charges, the freight on Mr. Gillian's consignment, and the value of a few other useful articles, which Mr. Bayley found it necessary to order, the total has been raised to £1,768-4-6 as shown above.

4. Freight will have to be paid on the consignment of Messrs. Gardner, on arrival; with this exception, Mr. Bayley's account includes all charges up to arrival of the goods at Madras.

5. The Board calculated that the articles which they propose to procure from England would cost about £2,142-14 exclusive of packing, freight, insurance, &c., but through the instrumentality of Mr. Bayley, a much larger supply of goods has been obtained including all charges (except the one item alluded to above) at a saving on the Board's estimate of £374-9-6.

Paragraph 4.

6. From a slight error in Mr. Bayley's calculations he has under charged himself with 2*s.* 8*d.* but this is covered by the extra 3 shillings included in the proposed remittance, he has also omitted an item of 9£ in copying the details (value of 40 dozen steel forks) but it is included in the total which is correct. A remittance of 966£ will, therefore, properly adjust the account.
