No. 293. Read the following letter from W. BALMAIN, Esq., Acting Civil Auditor, to J. D. BOURDILLON, Esq., Secretary to Government, Revenue Department, dated 16th August 1860, No. 869 :—

SIR,

1. I have the honor to report as follows on the claim of Mr. W. Beaumont to travelling allowance while absent in Europe, referred to this Office by Proceedings of Government, dated 11th August 1860, No. 1,334.

2. In the original Statement sanctioned by the Supreme Government this allowance is distinctly entered as travelling allowance and there is nothing to warrant the conclusion that it was to be considered personal. It is certainly drawn in full month by month, but the Survey Establishment are, I imagine, always more or less on duty requiring them to move from place to place, and involving greater expense than if they could settle down permanently.

3. The fixed tentage of Revenue Officer is not payable during absence on sick leave and I think that this fixed travelling allowance should come under the same rule. I am of opinion that an Officer on leave to Europe cannot be held entitled to draw the travelling allowance in question.

No. 294. ORDER THEREON, 24th August 1860, No. 1,427.

A copy of this letter will be communicated to the Superintendent of Revenue Survey in reply to his letter of the 9th instant, and with the intimation that the Government entirely agree with the Acting Civil Auditor.

(Signed) J. D. BOURDILLON,
Secretary to Government.
