MADRAS RECORD OFFICE.

Government of Madras.

Revenue DEPARTMENT.

G.O. No. 1244 — 1245	Press ~~Mis.~~
90-92
Dated 27 — 1 — 1860.

Not to be folded or roughly handled

No. 90. MINUTE BY THE HONORABLE THE PRESIDENT.

I propose that Mr. F. W. Morris, now Acting Principal Assistant in Ganjám, should be appointed Deputy Director of Revenue Settlement in place of Mr. Ballard, the appointment to take effect on the latter gentleman availing himself of the furlough to England about to be given him.

2. Mr. Morris is the person selected by Mr. Newill as the best qualified for the post of those available. But in order to give him an insight into the work of the department, it is desirable that he should be with Mr. Ballard for two months; and I propose that he should be directed to proceed immediately to join Mr. Ballard's office for that purpose, and be informed that his appointment will take effect on Mr. Ballard's departure.

3. Mr. Morris will lose the officiating allowances which he now receives; but at the end of the two months he will receive a large and permanent increase of pay.

(Signed) C. E. TREVELYAN.

No. 91. ORDER THEREON, 27th January 1860, No. 144.

Ordered, accordingly that Mr. F. W. Morris, Acting Principal Assistant in Ganjám be appointed Deputy Director of Revenue Settlement in the Krishna district from the date on which Mr. Ballard may avail himself of furlough to Europe; and that the communication suggested by the Honorable the President in paragraph 2 of the above Minute be made to Mr. Morris.

(Signed) T. PYCROFT,
Chief Secretary.

Ordered in consequence that the following letter be despatched.

No. 92. From T. PYCROFT, Esq., Chief Secretary to Government; to F. W. MORRIS, Esq., Acting Principal Assistant, Ganjam, dated 27th January 1860, No. 145.

I am directed to inform you that the Honorable the Governor in Council has been pleased to appoint you to be Deputy Director of Revenue Settlement of the Krishna district, in place of Mr. Ballard proceeding on furlough to Europe.

2. In order to give you an insight into the work of the department, it is desirable that you should be with Mr. Ballard for two months, you will, therefore, proceed immediately to join that gentleman's office for that purpose. Your appointment, however, will take effect on Mr. Ballard's departure.

3. You will lose the officiating allowance which you now receive; but at the end of the two months you will receive a large and permanent increase of pay, with full salary of the office to which you will succeed.
