No. 126. Read the following Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 13th January 1860, No. 185.

Read letter from the Collector of Tinnavelli, dated 28th November 1859, No. 502.

(In Cons. 5th December 1859, No. 6039.)

In this letter the Collector of Tinnavelli submits the arrangements which he considers necessary in consequence of the death on the 7th September last of Pulesivagnana Tévar, proprietor of the Avudiapuram estate, in that district.

2. The estate pays a peshkash of Rupees 4,307-3-0, and is capable of yielding an annual revenue of Rupees 8,925. It is held under a sanad istimrár and free from all arrears of peshkash.

3. The deceased has left three widows, a daughter aged seven years, and three sons, the eldest of whom is only 5½ years old.

4. The late Zamíndár on the 16th October 1858, appointed one Véláyudham Pillai manager of the estate during his life time, and also after his death until his eldest son should attain his majority. On the day of his death, the Zamíndár wrote to the Collector repeating his wish that Véláyudham should continue manager in communication with his third wife, the mother of all his children.

5. The second widow, who is childless, now disputes this on the strength of an agreement which she has not produced, but which, as she asserts, the deceased executed at her marriage, conveying the estate to her on his death.

6. The estate is ancestral property and held under an istimrári sanad; there can be no doubt, therefore, that the eldest son of the deceased is entitled to succeed.

7. Being a minor he cannot manage the property, and the Collector proposes to nominate Véláyudham manager and the third widow (mother of the minor children,) his guardian.

8. The Board observe that the estate will shortly be sold by order of Court on account of debts incurred by the late proprietor, and the proper course would, therefore, seem to be, that the Collector under Section XX Regulation II of 1803, should attach the property, with a view to its sub-division and sale. Under these circumstances, the interposition of the Court of Wards seems scarcely necessary.

9. Ordered that the following endorsement be passed on petitions Nos. 3773 and 3849 of 1859;—

"The Board cannot prevent the sale of the estate as ordered by the Civil Court."

10. Resolved that a copy of these Proceedings be submitted for the information and orders of Government.

No. 127. ORDER THEREON, 31st January 1860, No. 163.

1. Government approve of the proposition made by the Board in paragraph 7 of these Proceedings.

2. The Board will report in due course should the estate be brought to sale. Until the Collector is in receipt of the decree of the Court, he should proceed as usual under the direction of the Court of Wards.
