Dated	31 — 1 —	1860.

Not to be folded or roughly handled

No. 128. Read the following letter from J. D. SIM, Esq., Secretary to the Board of Revenue; to T. PYCROFT, Esq., Chief Secretary to Government, dated 16th January 1860, No. 210.

In Con. 1st November 1856, No. 4426.

In the Minutes of Consultation, dated 28th October 1856, R. D., No. 1138, the Government acceded to the recommendation of the Acting Agent of Ganjam, supported by the Board, that the management of the Biridi zamíndári should be left to Permáda Narenda Santo, brother of the late zamíndár, on behalf of the minor heir.

2. The then Acting Agent recommended the course which Government sanctioned, as the deceased zamíndár had expressed a wish that the property should be left to the care of his brother, in whose ability and integrity he had great confidence.

3. The late Zamíndár had three wives. The first and second had no male issue and the third had three sons, the elder of whom was recognized as heir. Narenda Santo (who now appears to be an illegitimate brother of the deceased,) was also appointed guardian, and the minor was given over to the care of the first widow.

No. 5492, 24th October in Con. 5th November 1859.

4. From a recent letter received from the Collector of Ganjam, it appears that disputes have arisen among the family. The mother of the minor heir has repeatedly protested against being separated from her child, and she charges the guardian and elder widow with harsh treatment of herself, mismanagement of the táluq and other misconduct.

5. From an examination of the accounts and other circumstances, Mr. Forbes is led to suspect that Narenda Santo's administration has not been faithful, and that he has been concerned in various corrupt transactions.

6. Acting on these impressions, Mr. Forbes has removed the minor and his mother to Chattarpúr, and provided them with a suitable house and retinue, and he now proposes to take the estate and the minor under charge of the Court of Wards.

7. The Board approve of this step having been taken, and request authority to assume charge of the estate as Court of Wards, a step which they deem absolutely necessary for the minor's welfare.

No. 129. ORDER THEREON, 31st January 1860, No. 164.

Under the circumstances represented by the Collector of Ganjam, and agreeably to the recommendation of the Board of Revenue the Governor in Council grants authority for the Biridi zamíndári in that district being taken under the management of the Court of Wards.
