PROCEEDINGS OF THE MADRAS GOVERNMENT.

Read the following letter from Lieutenant Colonel W. G. WOODS, Adjutant General of the Army, to the Secretary to Government, Military Department, Fort Saint George, dated 4th September 1860, No. 821.

As neither Police authority nor Civil jurisdiction under Regulation VII of 1[illegible] longer vested in the Commissariat Officer at Bellary, I have the honor by order of the Commander-in-Chief, and at the suggestion of the Commissary General, to recommend that the provisions of Act* XVIII of 1853 and Act† III of 1859 may be made applicable to the above Station and the Town of Bellary, where Captain Robson Benson was appointed a Joint Magistrate, with the full powers of a Magistrate, under date 21st July 1860, No. 915.

* For regulating the sale of Spirituous Liquors, &c., in Cantonments.

† For conferring Civil jurisdiction in certain cases upon Cantonment Joint Magistrates and for constituting those Officers Registers of Deeds.

Referred to the Judicial Department.

FORT SAINT GEORGE,
5th September 1860.

(Signed) H. MARSHALL, Colonel,
Secretary to Government.

ORDER THEREON, 22nd September 1860, No. 1,226.

In the letter (4th September 1860) referred with the above Order, it is recommended that the provisions of Acts XVIII of 1853 and III of 1859, be made applicable to the Station and Town of Bellary.

2. This application is made on the grounds that neither Police authority nor Civil jurisdiction under Regulation VII, 1832, are any longer vested in the Commissariat Officer in Bellary, now that the new Police under Act XXIV, 1859, have been substituted for the old Cantonment Police. The Honorable the Governor in Council considers that this view of the relation between the new Police and the Military authorities of those Military Bazar Stations into which they have been introduced, is incorrect.

3. Regulation VII of 1832 has not been rescinded, nor in any way affected by the introduction of the new Police.

4. In regard to the discharge of any duty that under Regulation VII, 1832, they can be called upon to perform, the new Police in all Military Bazar Stations where they have been introduced are still under the immediate control of the Commanding Officer and of the Senior Commissariat Officer or other Officer specially appointed by the Government as laid down in Sections III and IV of Regulation VII, 1832.

5. The only change that has taken place is, that the men who perform Police duties within such Military Bazar Stations are now furnished from a body, who, as regards discipline and the internal economy of the corps to which they belong, are placed under distinct Officers for that special purpose.

6. But when any portion of the new Police is detached for duty in a Military Bazar Station, the men are, as heretofore, under "the immediate charge" of the Officer vested by the Regulation in question with the powers of that Regulation. Regulation VII, 1832, it is to be remarked, says nothing as to whence the Police men are to be procured. As Police duties could not be performed or carried out without Police men, the Government have hitherto placed at the disposal of Commanding Officers, a certain number of men appointed under certain rules. These rules have now been set aside, and the Police men are now provided by the Government under the provisions of the new Police Act.

7. Under the considerations above explained, the Government deem the introduction of Acts XVIII, 1853 and III, 1859, into the Station of Bellary to be uncalled for. The Civil powers exercised by the Officer acting under Regulation VII, 1832, are ample for all Military purposes, and the Local Civil Courts suffice for other cases. The Machinery now in operation for the registry of Deeds is also enough for the wants of the town of Bellary.
