Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, 1st October 1860.

No. 5. Read the following letter from C. NARAYANASAMI, Mudali, Deputy Collector of Nellore, to J. D. BOURDILLON, Esq., Secretary to Government, Revenue Department, dated Madras, 28th September 1860 :—

SIR,

1. Learning that it was the desire of Government that the appointment of Assessors should be held by tried Servants of Government; and expecting that I should be promoted to a greater emolument and trust than the one I now hold, I submitted an application begging the Commissioners to obtain the sanction of Government to my holding the appointment without detriment to my prospects and present standing in the service. The Commissioners have offered me the office of an Assessor on Rupees 350, without disposing of the point above alluded to.

2. I have therefore the honor to request you will be pleased to submit my case to Government, and obtain for me the permission to accept the office offered me without detriment to or resignation of my substantive post. Should it not be in the power of Government to concede this indulgence, I should not feel myself justified in accepting the offer made to me by the Income Tax Commissioners.

No. 6. ORDER THEREON, 1st October 1860, No. 1,753.

The Government cannot accede to the request contained in this letter. C. Narayanasami Mudali must decide for himself, and either accept the office of Assessor unconditionally and without reference to his appointment of Deputy Collector, or decline it.

There is an idea abroad that the income tax appointments are not permanent. By the 25 section, the applicant must be allowed to hold his appointment for, with from time to time to be determined by the Collector, after giving him [illegible] months notice which makes a string of ten [illegible] appointments.

I would not be content
to this arrangement.
The applicant must be made for himself. The Commissioners, call here the difficulty in the working. There is nothing in the act that leads to the conclusion arrived at, that the applicant is entitled to one year. The Mudali ought
