Sir,

I am reporting to you my return to office yesterday the 11th instant. I have the honor to mention that a severe attack of fever prevented my earlier return and to refer you to a certificate forwarded by me to you from Cochin in confirmation of the same.

2 I have resumed my duties though as yet doubtful whether I shall be able at once to perform them, and for the present would request your obtaining for me sanction under Section XII for the extended leave of 8 days which I have been compelled to take.

3 As 3 months accumulated leave
