Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, 22nd October 1860.

No. 366. Read the following letter from ARTHUR HALL, Esq., President to the Income Tax Commission, to J. D. BOURDILLON, Esq., Secretary to Government, Revenue Department, dated Madras, 19th October 1860, No. 13 :—

SIR,

In consequence of the difficulty that is experienced by the Assessors in procuring the names of many of the inhabitants of the Town who come under Act XXXII of 1860, with their present establishment, I have the honor to request that you will be pleased to obtain the sanction of Government for the entertainment of such additional Conicopolies and Peons as the Commissioners may consider absolutely necessary to effect the object in view; no period of employment to exceed three months, and the cost to appear as a charge in the Contingent Bill of the Commissioners' Office.

No. 367. ORDER THEREON, 22nd October 1860, No. 1,932.

The Government grant authority for the entertainment of such additional Conicopolies and Peons as the Income Tax Commissioners may find necessary for the purpose stated in this letter, but on the understanding that the period of employment shall in no case exceed three months. The charge will, as proposed, be included in the contingent Bill of the Commissioners' Office.

(Signed) J. D. BOURDILLON,
Secretary to Government.
