Entered in the village Pymash accounts as the Inám of Kandala Sharaniachary, but not entered as Inám in the accounts of the Mogaloy Government.	Charity.	Kandalah Sharaniachary, grandson of the grantee. He is still alive.	The whole.	.....	The Inám was enjoyed for many years by the claimant, but on account of his absence from the District in Fasli 1266, when the inquiry into the unregistered Ináms was held, this Inám was resumed by the Officiating Commissioner. It is now, on the direction of the Board, recommended to be restored to this claimant, pending the final settlement by the Inám Commissioner.

Submitted to Government with the Board's recommendation that the unauthorised resumption of this Inám by the late Acting Commissioner on account of the non-appearance of the Inámdar be cancelled, and that the decision in the case be referred to the Inám Commissioner who is now engaged in the Kurnool District.
