No. 137. Read the following letter from C. F. CHAMIER, Esq., Registrar of the Sudder Court, to J. D. BOURDILLON, Esq., Secretary to Government, Revenue Department, dated Madras, 19th October 1860, No. 90 :—

SIR,

1. The Judges having obtained the opinion of the Officiating Civil Judge of Tellicherry upon the arrangements described in the Proceedings of Government dated the 24th ultimo, direct me to state that the services of the Wainád Munsiff appear to be greatly needed for the relief of the Tellicherry and Kártinád Munsiff's Courts, in each of which there are about 1,200 suits pending; and that the Judges therefore propose locating the present Wainád Munsiff at Baddagiri about 12 miles from Tellicherry, and assigning to his jurisdiction certain Amshams now under the jurisdiction of the Tellicherry and Kártinád Munsiffs.

2. At Nelliálam there would seem to be every little litigation, and a District Munsiff stationed there and vested with criminal powers, would be chiefly occupied in settling disputes arising out of contracts between the seven planters said to be resident there, and the labourers in their employ. The Judges think that for the present there is not occupation either for a Deputy Collector or a District Munsiff at Nelliálam.

3. On the removal of the Wainád Munsiff from his present station, Manantoddi, it will be necessary that the Deputy Collector there should be invested with the powers of a District Munsiff, which, it appears from the Officiating Civil Judge's letter, has not yet been done.

No. 138. ORDER THEREON, 8th November 1860, No. 2,082.

1. In an order of the 24th September No. 1,699, the Government asked for the opinion of the Court of Sudder Addalut, on a suggestion to station the Munsiff of Manantoddi, now no longer needed at that place, at Nelliálam, with the powers also of a Deputy Magistrate, instead of the Deputy Magistrate who was to be placed there according to the order of Government in the Judicial Department dated 23rd March 1860, No. 359. The Court report that the Munsiff is more wanted in another part of Malabar; and that there is very little business to be done at Nelliálam.

2. The proposed arrangement therefore cannot take effect; but the Government are still of opinion that one Deputy Collector and Magistrate will be sufficient for Wainád. One of the two appointed to that Táluq is therefore available to be stationed elsewhere, and according to the list embodied in the order of April 11th 1860, No. 556, he should be sent to Salem. But it has occured to the Government that a third officer of this class is perhaps more wanted in the Kistna District than in Salem, and they resolve to refer the matter for the opinion of the Board of Revenue.

Sir,

The Judges having obtained the opinion of the Officiating Civil Judge of Tellicherry upon the arrangements described in the Proceedings of Government dated the 24th ultimo, direct me to state that the services of the Wynaad Moonsiff, appear to be greatly needed for the relief of the Tellicherry and Kurtinad Moonsiffs' Courts, in each of which there are about 1200 suits pending; and that the Judges therefore propose locating the present Wynaad Moonsiff at Baddagherry about 12 miles from Tellicherry, and assigning to his jurisdiction certain Amshoms now under the jurisdiction of the the Pellicherry and Kartinad Moonsiffs.

2. At Pellialum there would seem to be very little litigation, and a District Moonsiff stationed there and vested with criminal powers, would be chiefly occupied in settling disputes arising out of contracts between the seven planters said to be resident there and the labourers in their employ. The Judges think that for the present there is not occupation either for a Deputy Collector or a District Moonsiff at Pellialum.

3. On the removal of the Wynaad Moonsiff from his present station, Manantoddy, it will be necessary that the Deputy Collector there should be invested with the powers of a District Moonsiff which, it appears from the Officiating Civil Judge's letter, has not yet been done.
