No. 259. Read the following letter from H. NEWILL, Esq., Director of Revenue Settlement, to J. D. BOURDILLON, Esq., Secretary to Government, Revenue Department, Fort Saint George, dated Madras, 29th October 1860, No. 1,114:—

SIR,

1. I have the honor to submit the accompanying letters* from the Superintendent of Revenue Survey, in which he represents that the Civil Auditor is not prepared to pass bills for the salaries of certain extra hands entertained in the Masulipatam party under the sanction of 28th December last within the annual sanctioned expenditure for the party.

* Dated 26th and 27th instant, Nos. 914 and 915.

No. 1,779, paragraph 13, Clause I.

2. Captain Priestley explains that the hands are intended for a short while to be employed usefully in the Masulipatam party to bring up arrears, and accordingly to be charged to it in accordance with the sanctioned provisions above quoted; and that they will then be advantageously transferred to the Nellore party when constituted.

3. The arrangements are in accordance with the sanction of Government already obtained, and I may add that on Captain Priestley consulting me as to taking advantage of the Steamer Dalhousie to sail on 31st instant, for sending up the Survey hands; it has been thought expedient not to lose valuable time by missing this opportunity pending the orders of Government, who will, I trust, approve the course which has been taken, and remove the obstacle now brought under notice.

No. 260. ORDER THEREON, 15th November 1860, No. 2,145.

1. In the order quoted by the Director of Revenue Settlement in paragraph 1 of his letter above recorded, the Government gave permission for "unappropriated salaries for one month "to be employed in any other within the year, it being frequently an advantage to have extra "hands in some months and a lesser number in others."

2. The Superintendent of Survey should submit the bill to the Civil Auditor quoting precisely the sanction referred to, and explaining that the extra charge to which the bill relates has been incurred under it, and that the amount is within the saving available.

3. Should the Civil Auditor still object to pass the charge, the matter will then properly be brought before Government.

Acting Secretary to Government.
