I have the honor to submit for the consideration of Government, a proposition of the Collector of Madras, to transfer the five villages noted in the margin, from the Peddapolliem to the Ponnéri Táluq, in order to correct the borders between the two Táluqs. These villages are situated close to the Cusbah station of the latter Táluq, on the other side of which there are several villages belonging to that Táluq. I think these villages may very properly be transferred to Ponnéri, and therefore request that Government will be pleased to sanction the transfer recommended.
