Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department,
24th November 1860.

No. 414. Read the following letter from Mr. G. STEEVENS, Trustee of the Baptist Chapel New Town and of the property connected with it, to the Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George, dated Madras, 13th November 1860 :—

SIR,

I have been instructed by the Trustees of the Baptist Chapel at Madras and of the property connected with it, to request you will submit to the Honorable the Governor in Council this application for exemption of Income Tax, under clause 133 of Act XXXII of 1860, on that Chapel and property, as the whole of it is employed for and dedicated to religious purposes. The property consists of Chapel and house in Chapel Compound in New Town, Madras.

Dwelling house, Vepery High Road.
Do. do. Saint Thomé.

The Chapel is used for public religious worship at stated times.

The houses are generally rented, and realize in the aggregate, a monthly rent of 85 Rupees, and this is set apart for the out-fit and passage money to and from England of the Minister having charge of the Baptist Chapel in New Town.

No. 415. ORDER THEREON, 24th November 1860, No. 2,224.

Under Section 133 of Act XXXII of 1860, and the authority vested in them by the Government of India, the Government direct that the Baptist Chapel situated in New Town Madras, with the property mentioned in the foregoing letter, shall be exempted from the duties chargeable under the said Act.
