Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, for the month of January 1860.

No. 47. Read the following letter from W. WATERFIELD, Esq., Acting Civil Auditor; to J. D. BOURDILLON, Esq., Secretary to Government; Revenue Department; dated 15th December 1859, No. 1423.

I have the honor to request that you will inform me whether it was the intention of Government in their order No. 1513, dated 7th ultimo, (according to the wish of the acting Collector of Cádápa to retain the services of Srínivása Ráo for a period beyond the original six months), to permit him to draw the difference of allowances between head Sarishtadár and Deputy Collector, during transit from one appointment to the other. Their orders of the 20th April 1859 were passed in the case of this very officer and only applied to uncovenanted servants, the rule previously existing for the covenanted. My impression is, that Government in their more recent order only purposed to continue the same rate of allowances up to the 1st November. Moreover, 18 days being the time allowed for joining, the Deputy Collector did not assume charge of his new duties till the 5th December.

No. 48. ORDER THEREON, 5th January 1860, No. 22.

The rule is that the increased allowances of a new appointment commence only from the date of joining. Srínivása Ráo was permitted to draw the increase while detained at Cádápah on duty, in order to save him from loss. But if he had joined his appointment at Bellarí, within the regular time he would not have drawn the increased allowances while on the journey; and the mere postponement of the time of joining constitutes no good reason for giving them to him while on the journey.

(Signed) J. D. BOURDILLON,
Secretary to Government.
